CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT

The Modular Home Builders Association has adopted these guidelines to promote and maintain high standards of professional service and business conduct among its members and the industry.

Individuals should refer to their own corporate conduct or ethics guidelines where such programs exist. In addition to corporate programs, MHBA has developed this industry code of conduct for our member companies and their employees (collectively referred to as members) as minimally acceptable standards of conduct:

- A member shall not give or accept gifts from suppliers, customers or other business associates that create the appearance that the gift giver is entitled to preferential treatment, an award of business or better pricing.
- A member shall not give or accept gifts of cash, gifts prohibited by law, or gifts given as bribes, kickbacks or to secure an improper business advantage.
- A member shall not give or receive gifts in the form of services or other non-cash benefits, such as the promise of employment.
- A member shall not knowingly misrepresent information concerning his or her financial and professional business background.
- A member shall not knowingly make misrepresentations about his or her company, competitors, or the association.
- A member shall not knowingly make misrepresentations about his or her products or services, including using photographs, logos, images, or other work from another company without first obtaining permission from that source and citing the source when publicly used.
- A member shall maintain all required licenses, certifications, and approvals and shall make a good faith effort to follow all applicable local, state, and federal rules and regulations.

In addition to this Code of Conduct, MHBA expects its members to follow these guidelines regarding professional behavior:

As members of the Modular Home Builders Association, we pledge:

- To improve individual competence and advance the knowledge and proficiency of the industry through continuing education and learning opportunities.
- To promote greater awareness of modular construction methods and practices.
- To treat suppliers, manufacturers, and vendors in a professional manner and as part of the project team.
- To promote safety and quality in our projects and within our company for the safety of employees, vendors, sub contractors, and the general public.
- To participate to the best of our ability in the promotion of the industry.
- To adhere to honesty and integrity and to generally accepted principles of professional conduct.
- To work together with the manufacturer/builder to the greatest extent possible to resolve issues arising from customer dissatisfaction.
- And to adhere to the articles of the Code of Business Conduct as adopted by the governing Board of the Modular Home Builders Association.

I agree to abide by the Bylaws governing the Modular Home Builders Association (MHBA) and the policies established by the Board of Directors. I have read and adhere to the MHBA Code of Business Conduct.
